As we begin 2024, I find myself reflecting on the immense impact we've achieved together at Martha's Kitchen over the past few years. Your unwavering support has been the cornerstone of our efforts, enabling us to confront the staggering reality of food insecurity in the regions we serve. In 2023, despite facing significant funding cuts and an unprecedented increase in demand for our services, we stood resilient. With your support we provided just over 2.8 million meals to those in need, a testament to our shared commitment to alleviate hunger in the communities we serve.

The impact we highlight in this report would not have been possible without the dedication of our amazing volunteers, the generous contributions from our donors, and the strong partnerships we've forged. Looking ahead, the challenge of food insecurity remains at the forefront. With nearly 250,000 meals provided monthly through our combined meal and grocery programs, your ongoing generosity and commitment are vital to our mission. Thank you for your support!

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

It was an honor for Martha's Kitchen to host U.S. Secretary of Energy Jennifer Granholm's press conference, where she announced the recipients of a transformative grant aimed at enhancing energy efficiency in nonprofit organizations. This grant aligns seamlessly with our ethos of sustainability and community service. The spirit of collaboration shone brightly as Secretary Granholm and her team joined us in serving the community after her announcement, demonstrating a powerful commitment to our mission.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Gretchen Gigley, San Jose Mayor Matt Mahan, Councilmembers Omar Torres and Dev Davis, The Ecology Action Team, and all attendees. Their support not only amplifies our work but also embodies the true spirit of community partnership. As Secretary Granholm stated, “Nonprofits promote social cohesion, public health, creativity, and innovation…” – a reflection of our mission at Martha's Kitchen. Serving the community goes beyond providing meals; it’s about fostering hope, innovation, and building stronger, more cohesive communities. This event is a testament to our shared dedication to a healthier, more sustainable future, aligning our mission with broader community and environmental goals, and showcasing the impact of local actions on global change.

Expanding Our Impact
VISION IN ACTION

For over forty years, Martha's Kitchen has been a pillar of hope, offering food security to those in need. Currently, our programs provide nearly 250,000 meals monthly, and through our food rescue efforts, we save over 40,000 pounds of food each month. This success marks only the beginning of our ambitious journey. We are at a transformative stage, ready to elevate our impact through a state-of-the-art food security hub. This facility will not only be the new heart of our operations but also allow us to triple our service capacity, allowing us to provide more meals, rescue more food, and support more partners.

This site will enable us to operate seven days a week, welcome new partners, significantly increase our food rescue efforts, and meet the growing needs of our community more effectively. Your support is vital in bringing this vision to life. With your help, we will renovate and equip the new site, enhancing our storage capacities and amplifying our impact. Once renovated, we anticipate a threefold increase in our program capacities, including hot meals, groceries, and food rescue. In gratitude for your support, we would be honored to acknowledge your contribution within the new facility, creating a lasting testament to your commitment to our mission. The prospect of partnering with you in this endeavor fills us with great hope.

If you're excited about the potential of partnering with us on our new food security hub, we would like to invite you to join forces with Martha's Kitchen in this groundbreaking initiative. Phases & Anticipated Costs

Martha's Kitchen is embarking on an ambitious and transformative project to establish a cutting-edge food security hub. Our fundraising goal for this initiative is to gather $3 million in private donations, complemented by a substantial amount in grants, to finance a significant part of our budget. This project is structured into four strategic phases, set to begin once we are under contract in January 2024 (timelines planned accordingly), each phase with its own set of objectives and timelines:

1. Infrastructure Phase (12–24 months): This foundational phase focuses on preparing the site, establishing robust structural foundations, and installing primary systems. This phase is crucial for setting a durable groundwork for the entire project. Its complexity makes it the most time-intensive phase.

2. TI Buildout Phase (12–24 months): Here, we will customize the space to enhance functionality and efficiency. Key activities include interior construction, installing equipment, and setting up operational facilities. This phase is essential for ensuring our operations are smooth and effectively tailored to meet the needs of the community, requiring significant time for meticulous customization.

3. Cold Storage Phase (18–36 months): This phase is dedicated to boosting our storage capabilities, with a focus on implementing advanced cold storage solutions. The main goal is to install and test systems that can preserve perishable goods, particularly food items, under optimal conditions. This phase, while shorter, concentrates on the efficient establishment of cold storage facilities.

4. Kitchen Buildout Phase (24–48 months): Contingent on the progress of earlier phases, this final stage aims to create a fully-equipped, modern kitchen. This includes intricate kitchen design, equipment installation, and ensuring compliance with health and safety standards. This phase is pivotal for facilitating high-quality meal preparation.

Martha's Kitchen Project Budget Summary
- Phase 1: Infrastructure: $3,080,965
- Phase 2: TI Buildout: $3,061,481
- Phase 3: Cold Storage: $743,746
- Phase 4: Kitchen Buildout: $1,772,294

Full budget breakout for project can be provided upon request. These amounts reflect the anticipated renovation and buildout costs for each phase of the project.
VOLUNTEERS & SUPPORTERS

As we look back on 2023, the remarkable dedication of our volunteers, donors, and supporters at Martha’s Kitchen shines brightly, a testament to their unwavering commitment. Over 20,000 hours were selflessly given, each hour a stepping stone in our journey to provide nearly 250,000 meals monthly to those in need. Their efforts are the backbone of our programs. Diligently engaging in vegetable/fruit prep, helping transform simple ingredients into nutritious meals, and crafted sandwiches with both care and compassion, ensuring that each meal is both filling and nourishing. We are also beyond blessed and grateful for our amazing community of supporters, donors, and organizational partners who help support our operations each month to provide food to those we serve.

Each box packed, every vegetable chopped, and every sandwich made represents a personal commitment to fighting hunger and food insecurity. The over 20,000 hours and the generosity shown by our donors this year are more than just a measure of time; they symbolize a collective effort of kindness and community. Our community is the heart and hands of Martha’s Kitchen, embodying the spirit of giving and community support. We extend our deepest gratitude to every supporter who has joined us in this mission in 2023, and we hope you will continue to partner with us to fight food insecurity in 2024.
